

Declaration letter of Conditionally Opened Route Hiking

I, _____, and my team totaling _____ people, hereby declare that we understand the difficulties in climbing the conditionally opened route (during the snow season). I (We) recognize Yushan National Park's efforts to protect Yushan's ecology and the safety of its climbers. I (We) affirm that when I am (we are) within Yushan National's park grounds, I (we) will abide to its rules and regulations, and I am (we are) physically fit to finish the route (snow season: fully equipped with the required snow climbing equipment and have sufficient snow climbing abilities). As a guide/leader, I will take full responsibility for the safety of myself and my team members, and is willing to submit myself for inspection by the Yushan National Park Headquarters and/or the Yushan Police Squad. I (we) will exercise extreme caution to maintain Yushan's ecology and my (our) safety, and have already applied for mountain climbing or traveling insurance. If any of the above protocols are violated, I (we) will for the safety of myself and others voluntary cancel the expedition and/or evacuate from the park or suffer legal consequences.
